

SEMINAR AT CANINE DESIGN
CITY & GUILDS ADVANCED WORKSHOP
SUNDAY 23 AUGUST 2009

This workshop is aimed at people considering taking their City & Guilds Advanced Examination 7750/03 either in the short term or at a later date and is designed to help you plan for your exam and to recognise your own strengths and weaknesses.

The day will be hosted by the Canine Design staff and there will be the opportunity for delegates to bring along their own dogs to groom under mock-exam conditions.

The staff at Canine Design (who are all City & Guilds Advanced qualified and hold units towards their Higher Diploma) will then go over the dogs, giving critiques and constructive help and criticism.

The workshop will be limited to 18 people, who will bring along their own pre-prepared dogs with 2 hours allowed for each person. This will give everyone the opportunity to groom their dogs, with time for a discussion afterwards.

There will be 2 batches of 9 groomers - the first batch starting grooming at 10.00 a.m. and the 2nd batch starting at 12 noon. The cost will be £30 for each dog groomed.
